Modification of Font Software

1. You are not allowed to modify the font software without the written consent of Laurent Müller.
2. Alterations to the outlines for the use of logos and design elements are permitted without the written consent of Laurent Müller.

Document Embedding

You may embed the fonts in static un-editable electronic documents, such as PDF. The fonts must be embedded in such a way that the reader is restricted from extracting the fonts from the document.

Web Use

This license allows you to use the fonts on websites using CSS @font-face rules, so long as the combined traffic for those sites remains within the limits defined in this license. You are limited to serving the fonts in the WOFF, WOFF2 formats.

Web Traffic

You are allowed to serve the fonts in web font formats on websites that receive a limited number of unique visitors per month, defined in the following table according to the number of users specified in your order receipt.

APP and E-BOOK Use

You may not embed the fonts in software apps or e-books. To inquire about app or e-book licensing, please contact Laurent Müller. If unique visitor numbers are not recorded for your websites, you may alternately use monthly pageviews as a metric for web traffic limitations by multiplying the allowed number of unique visitors per month by four (4). For example: instead of 15,000 unique visitors per month, it would be 60,000 pageviews per month. If you exceed the allowed amount of web traffic for three consecutive months, you must upgrade your license. Laurent Müller reserves the right to inspect or monitor your use.

Web Domains

You may use the font on multiple domains or subdomains, so long as all websites using the fonts are owned and operated by you, and the cumulative traffic does not exceed your web traffic limitation.

Web Servers

You must host the fonts on the server of your website or on a CDN (content delivery network) where you control the hosted files. You must make a reasonable effort to prevent unlicensed use of the fonts by unauthorized parties.
